TO OUR VALUED CUSTOMERS:

Due to continued rising raw material, labor, freight, and overhead costs, we are forced to implement another price increase on all our products, effective January 1, 2022. Rather than an across-the-board increase, we've adjusted prices by item or size to minimize the increase the best we can. See the attached Price Book, effective January 1, 2022, for the various increases.

Orders placed before January 1, 2022, will be honored at current prices. Aegis reserves the right to limit orders quantities based on historical purchase patterns.

Thank you for your understanding and continued support.

Sincere regards,
