Price Increase Notification

Dear Valued Customer:

At Senju Sprinkler, we greatly appreciate your business and remain committed to providing the highest quality fire protection products and services, ensuring the performance and support you rely on.

Due to increasing operational and material costs, along with additional tariffs, we will be implementing a price adjustment on select fire sprinkler and system component items, effective April 7, 2025. This adjustment enables us to continue delivering the exceptional value you trust.

To take advantage of current pricing, please ensure your purchase order is placed before April 7, 2025. If you need an updated price sheet or have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact us—we're happy to assist.

- RC Square Cover Plates (Average increase of 6%)
